Ed Lipscomb, Turnaround Manager, Receives Certified Fraud Examiner Designation

Greensboro, NC – Edward L. Lipscomb, Principal of the Greensboro-based turnaround management firm Anderson Bauman Tourtellot Vos & Co., has been designated a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) by the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners. CFEs have expert knowledge in the areas of fraudulent financial transactions, criminology and ethics, legal elements of fraud, and fraud investigation methods.

Lipscomb is based in the Jacksonville, Florida office of Anderson Bauman Tourtellot Vos. As a turnaround manager, he has served as Chief Restructuring Officer for troubled companies in industries such as automotive, construction materials, electronics, and textiles, and has significantly enhanced stakeholder value in each case. He has actively managed the Chapter 11 process in Florida, Georgia, Virginia, and North Carolina, and has been recognized by these courts as an expert witness.

Lipscomb earned his BS and MBA degrees from Louisiana Tech University and has also earned the Certified Turnaround Professional (CTP) designation.

“Being sensitive to the signs of fraud, knowing how to organize an investigation, interviewing potential witnesses, and collecting evidence in a way that will stand up in court are necessary skills in the turnaround management arena,” said Lipscomb. “Fraud is extremely common in businesses and frequently goes unsuspected and undetected, especially in companies that are in distress. The CFE credential is an important way we can assure our clients that potential fraud will not be overlooked.”

The Association of Certified Fraud Examiners is the world’s foremost provider of training and education for fraud detection and deterrence, with over 150 chapters worldwide. To obtain the CFE designation, candidates must have at least two years of professional experience in a field either directly or indirectly related to the detection or deterrence of fraud, pass a 500-question examination, commit to at least 20 hours of continuing professional education each year, and adhere to a strict code of professional ethics.

Anderson Bauman Tourtellot Vos, with offices in Greensboro, Charlotte, Atlanta. Jacksonville and Richmond, provides turnaround consulting, interim executive management, planning, fraud investigation and bankruptcy and liquidation services. www.abtv.com.
