John D. Connor Designated as Certified Fraud Examiner Turnaround Manager is a Principal at Anderson Bauman Tourtellot Vos

Greensboro, NC – John D. Connor, a principal at Anderson Bauman Tourtellot Vos, has been designated a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) by the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners. CFEs have expert knowledge in the areas of fraudulent financial transactions, criminology and ethics, legal elements of fraud, and fraud investigation.

Connor is based in the Atlanta office of Anderson Bauman Tourtellot Vos, a turnaround management firm with headquarters in Greensboro, NC. As a turnaround manager he has served clients in some two dozen industries, in companies ranging in size from $20 million to $200 million. Like all active Anderson Bauman Tourtellot Vos professionals he also holds the Certified Turnaround Professional designation.

Connor is an honor graduate of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, and earned the MBA degree from the Bryan School of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

“White collar crime is not uncommon in underperforming companies,” said Peter Tourtellot, managing director of Anderson Bauman Tourtellot Vos. “Our professionals frequently investigate, analyze and document fraud in the form of misappropriation of assets, financial statement fraud, cash larceny and inventory theft, among others. We are fortunate to have the additional training and expertise that John Connor brings to our team as a newly designated Certified Fraud Examiner.”

Anderson Bauman Tourtellot Vos, established in 1989, is a pioneer and leader in the corporate revitalization industry. The firm’s services include comprehensive business assessments, turnaround consulting, interim management, strategic planning, and assistance with financial restructuring, bankruptcies and liquidations.

The Association of Fraud Examiners is the world’s foremost provider of training and education for fraud detection and deterrence, with some 114 chapters worldwide. To obtain the CFE designation, candidates must pass a 500-question examination, commit to at least 20 hours of continuing professional education each year, and adhere to a strict code of professional ethics.
